HOW TO WRITE FOR CONVERSATIONS

The goal of the National Seminar on Jesuit Higher Education and its publication of Conversations is to strengthen the Jesuit identity of our 28 colleges and universities. First, each issue is written to stimulate the campus dialogue — through departmental discussions or faculty symposiums — on the pursuit of various ideals. Second, through our various departments — feature articles, forums, book reviews, reports, and Talking Back — we want to keep the conversation going to build on the progress we have made.

Our ten faculty members, representing various institutions and disciplines, visit three colleges and universities a year and listen to groups of faculty and students in order to decide the themes for each issue. Although most of the articles are commissioned, we welcome unsolicited manuscripts. Ideally they should explore an idea that will generate discussion rather than describe a worthy project at an institution.

Writing Guidelines. Please keep the article to fewer than 2000 words. DO NOT include footnotes.
