HOW TO WRITE FOR CONVERSATIONS

The goal of the National Seminar on Jesuit Higher Education and its publication of Conversations is to strengthen the Jesuit identity of our 28 colleges and universities. First, each issue is written to stimulate the campus dialogue — through departmental discussions or faculty symposiums — on the pursuit of various ideals. Second, through our various departments — feature articles, forums, book reviews, reports, and Talking Back — we want to keep the conversation going to build on the progress we have made.

Our ten faculty members, representing various institutions and disciplines, visit three colleges and universities a year and listen to groups of faculty and students in order to decide the themes for each issue. Although most of the articles are commissioned, we welcome unsolicited manuscripts. Ideally they should explore an idea that will generate discussion rather than describe a worthy project at an institution.

Writing Guidelines. Please keep the article to fewer than 2000 words. DO NOT include footnotes.

Incorporate any references into the text. Don't capitalize: chairman of the biology department, names of committees, or administrative titles unless the title precedes the name: President Woodrow Wilson. We welcome photographs, fully captioned, preferably of action rather than posed shots. Send by CD containing digital images scanned at not less than 300 dpi or by online download. Send the ms as a Microsoft WORD attachment to conversamag@gmail.com.

Permission is granted to reprint articles from Conversations for any educational purpose, provided credit is given. Archive issues are available at <http://epublications.marquette.edu/conversations/>
