Book Review

Morals, Law and Life

BY CAHAL B. DALY, M.A.D.D.

This is a ton of dynamite packed into a ninety-five cent pocket edition and exploded by an angered Irishman. It is made up of 215 pages of succinct and devastating rebuttal with 340 reference foot-notes. It was inspired by the "New Morality" and "God-is-dead" theology.

The immediate cause of Father Daly's ire is one Doctor Glanville Williams. This distinguished Professor of Law allegedly parades as an authority on theology, biology, genetics, sociology and medicine in his book The Sanctity of Life and the Criminal Law. Father Daly finds nothing new and no morality in the Professor's book but rather a parroting of cliches traceable to Fletcher of Harvard and back to Bertrand Russell.

Morals, Law and Life presents the humanist theory on Sex, Love, Marriage, Contraception, Abortion, Sterilization, Artificial Insemination and Euthanasia. With the three writers own words, Cahal Daly refutes each thesis in a reductio ad absurdum fashion — and works in the Christian attitude.

This is presented in a simple, speedy style that holds the reader's interest as tautly as a good whodun-it mystery.

Reading time is approximately four hours.

The book has an index of subjects and an index of persons. It is an excellent and rapid reference addition to every library.
