 Rt. Rev. ad dear Monseigneur:-

Our First Communion
 class will be May 5th.
 We have about 15 girls and 13 boys. Could we have rosaries and scapulars for them?

Then we have Confirmation the same day. One hundred approximately are to be confirmed. They all need scapulars and rosaries.

I should have written you earlier but I have been very busy.

I will send this air-mail
 for quick service
 I thank you for all past favors
 Yours fraternally in Christ
 John A. Mulvey

Dear Father Mulvey:

I have your letter of April 27. If you had sent me the request in time to insert it in The Indian Sentinel, just off the press, I have, no doubt, that I could have gotten the articles. But once the articles have been delivered to the children, it is not easy to get the money. However, we have one good donor who may take on this bill.

I enclose copy of my order of today sent to Daleiden, Chicago, who will get it Monday.

Yours fraternally,

Dear Father Mulvey:

I wish to inform you that Mr. E. J. Kelly of New York is the donor of the shipment which was ordered from Daleiden to be sent direct to your mission. I trust that this shipment reached you in time for the children making their First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

I will ask you kindly to write a letter of thanks to Mr. Kelly and send it through this Bureau for transmittal by me.

Yours fraternally,

Rt. Rev. Msgr. William Hughes, Director.

Rt Rev and dear Monsignor*-

I thank you very much for your kindness in sending me such an adequate shipment for the Indian children, and for your telegram assuring me of the shipment so that I had no worries at all.

I went to the school to teach the Indians every day for about two weeks for the immediate preparation. My assistant also was there nearly every day for the same time. The Dominican Sisters also teach there every week so the children are quite well prepared.

Next Sunday is my last Sunday at the school until September, as over half of the children will go to their homes. Those who remain will come to Mass in our parish church. It would be fine if you could pass this way during your vacation. We would try to give you a good time.

Yours fraternally,

John A. Mulvey

Dear Mr. Kelly:

I wish to thank you most sincerely for your splendid gift to our little Indian children for their First Communion and Confirmation. The shipment arrived in time, and, I am sure, was deeply appreciated by the children. Ninety-nine children were confirmed, so you made at least that many happy. Our work here is made easier, when we know that there are some who are glad to assist in the work.
