Rt Rev and Dear Monsignor,

Please accept my sincere thanks for your check of $2.50, which came to hand some time ago. Pardon the delay, the letter was misplaced among other papers.

We feel very grateful to our benefactors. You know it's uphill work to keep up an Indian Mission. The Indian is always a ready receiver, but hardly ever a giver.

This Mission, the oldest in Oklahoma, was established a little over 50 yrs ago among the Pottawatomie Indians, 72^{mi} from the nearest Railroad. Children of six different tribes have attended our schools, viz Pottawatomie, Choctaw, Chickasaw, Creek, Cherokee & Seminole.

We read the Sentinel with great interest. You make it very interesting by the illustrations and news from the various Missions.

With best regards to yourself and your co-laborers,

Yours truly in D^{no}
