 " " In Care of Rt Rev. Mgr. Hughes:

St. Jude Thaddeus Church,
 Huron Mont. Jan 20th 1926

I herewith enclose a letter from the Mother Superior of the Ursuline Academy, Wilmington Del. so that you may be informed of the good work you are doing by your kind appeals in behalf of the Indian missionaries through the columns of the "Indian Sentinel". As your kindness and the charity of others had already provided a nice Ciborium and censer I passed the ciborium and censer to Rev. Patrick Savage S.J. in charge of the new mission among the Assinaboines on the Fort Belknap Reservation. I have advised him to write to you and state in detail his needs. I know for one thing he wants badly an Altarpiece.
 And now that Father Hughes knows it I am sure Father Savage will be soon supplied therewith.

Yours sincerely
 John J. Corbett S.J.

Dear Rt. Rev. Msgr. Hughes:

I herewith enclose a letter from the Mother Superior of the Ursuline Academy, Wilmington, Delaware, so that you may be informed of the good work you are doing by your kind appeals in behalf of the Indian missionaries through the columns of THE INDIAN SENTINEL. As your kindness and the charity of others had already provided a nice ciborium and censer I passed the ciborium and censer to Rev. Patrick Savage, S.J., in charge of the new mission among the Assinaboines on the Fort Belknap Reservation. I have advised him to write to you and state in detail his needs. I know for one thing he wants badly an ostensorium. And now that Father Hughes knows it, I am sure that Father Savage will be soon supplied therewith.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Reverend Father:

I have just read in the "Indian Sentinel", that you are in need of a ciborium and censor. As we have one that we are not using, I am sending on to you. If in the meantime your needs have been supplied, please pass the box on to some one else.

Asking a remembrance in your prayers, I am,

Very sincerely,

Mother M. Olympia.

As my needs in this matter have been supplied
I have passed the ciborium and censor to Rev. Patrick Savage S. J. for his Mission among the Assiniboin Indians on the Fort Belknap Reservation

Venerable Mother M. Olympias, Ursuline Academy,
Wilmington, Delaware.

Dear Mother Olympias:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your kind letter of January 12, and of a ciborium and censor. I wish to thank you for your kindness and zeal for the honor of God's house. Your charity enabled me to make another missionary happy for, having recently been the recipient of a ciborium and censor for my Indian mission among the Rocky Boys, I was no longer in need. So I gave ciborium and censor to Rev. Patrick Savage, S.J., who has charge of a mission among the Assiniboine Indians on the Fort Belknap Reservation. He will correspond with you.

Be assured of a prayerful remembrance.

Yours sincerely,

(Rev.) John T. Corbett, S.J.

Dear Father Corbett:

Enclosed please find Bureau check for $10 the gift of Miss Elizabeth Anderer of Philadelphia, Pa. Miss Anderer mentions that the gift represents the savings of herself and her school companions during the month of November. They ask that the money be used for St. Rose Church.

Kindly forward through this Bureau a letter of thanks for the donor.

Yours fraternally,

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Wm. Hughes,
Director.

Dear Miss Anderer:

With an apology for the use of a pencil owing to untoward circumstances and the necessity of catching a train and wishing speedily to assure you that your kind gift reached me, I herewith acknowledge receipt of $10 sent me for St. Rose Church among the Rocky Boy Indians through the courtesy of the Catholic Indian Bureau. I thank you heartily and I thank too your school companions who through their self-denial along with you made this gift possible. May the good God bless you and them for your charity to Christ's poor little ones! I expect to be back among my Rocky Boy Indians soon,

Yours appreciatively in Christ,

J. T. Corbett, S.J.

Dear Father Corbett:

I am sending you under separate cover list of names which were sent in by you and to which I have mailed at least fifteen appeals without getting any results. I am now taking these names completely out of my files. I will make no future appeals to them. I will hold these names for a short time awaiting information from you as to whether they are helping you in any way, either by sending clothing or other articles or by sending you donations of money. This information you can send to me by returning the slip of such donors after you have marked the slip with the words Faithful Contributor. I will then replace in my files the names of such persons whose slips you return, and will send to them THE INDIAN SENTINEL free at each quarterly issue. I will send to you as usual, any money they might send in the future.

Yours fraternally,

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Wm. Hughes,
Director.
