Gentlemen:-

I am writing you today for the purpose of ascertaining the number of "Indian Sunbeams" edited by you monthly. Also advise me whether or not this material is being disseminated and subscriptions obtained through any agency. If so, under what plan?

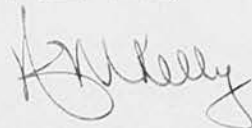

I am a subscriber to this publication, and because of a proposition which has been disclosed to me by a client, I am seeking this information from you confidentially in the hopes that I may be the means of placing your publication in a list which will increase your list of subscribers possibly two or three times, and thereby multiply the dollars that you will derive annually from the readers of this publication. You are one of twelve who will receive a somewhat similar letter.

I will not at this time go into the proposition further, for the reason that I could not intelligently discuss it with you until I learn first your number of subscribers; secondly, whether or not they are obtained through an agency; thirdly, if obtained through an agency, what is your share per subscriber per annum, and how many publications fourthly, if you are not publishing through an agency, what do you estimate that you receive per subscriber for furnishing paper, ink and printing edition, only?

As I said to you before, any information that you will give will be treated absolutely confidential and I wish you to treat this letter in the same manner at the present time.

The number of subscribers to the magazine is approximately thirty seven thousand. We receive no subscriptions through agencies nor is it our intention to do so in the future.

We will be very glad to hear of any plans relative to increase in our present circulation which either you or your client may suggest.

Yours very truly,

Gentlemen:

The enclosed M.O. for $1.00
pays my subscription to the
"Sentinel" for 1924.

I was almost tempted to ignore your subscription

so little satisfaction in writing to your Bureau.

The pages of your magazine
are full of requests for help, workers, but when they write you for information

highest in Minnesota and East of the Mississippi. The first seven months of 1923 show a

Dear Miss Kelley:

Your letter of February 24 has been received. The failure to answer your letter of August 18 is really inexcusable. It is our endeavor to answer all letters promptly, but of course there are times when we fail in this regard, as is the case with your letter. I beg you to accept our earnest apologies for our delinquency.

There are no openings in our mission and school field for clerical help, bookkeepers or stenographers. The only positions we had in mind in the issue of THE INDIAN SENTINEL asking for lay assistants were teachers and nurses. I assume from your letter that you would not care for work of that kind.

Very sincerely yours,

Charles S. Lusk,
Secretary.

Dear Father Eligius:

Rev. Dr. John M. Cooper of the Catholic University, will probably stop off at Santa Fe on his way to California. He starts soon. Dr. Cooper is teaching ethnology. He will attend the International Congress of Americanists (students of American Ethnology) in Sweden this summer.

He has promised to write an article on his impressions of the Southwestern Indians and send the article to me. I will give it to the N.C.W.C., where it will get the widest possible circulation in Catholic papers.

Both on this selfish account, and on account of Dr. Cooper's personal worth, I recommend him to your attention and will appreciate any courtesies which you can extend to him. His time will be very limited and he will be anxious to see the missions to the best advantage.

Yours fraternally,

Rev. William Hughes,
Director.

St. Mary's Rectory
Boston, Mass.

Dear Monsignor:

I am sending in this morning
to the Propagation of the Faith Office $330.40 for the Indian Missions, collected in this parish.

I thought that you might like to know that Miss Winifred J. Delaney 29 Hanson St. made a donation Sunday of $50.00 which with the $10.00 she gave on that Friday night made $60.00 that she gave. I thought you might like to send her a note of thanks.

ST. JAMES RECTORY
SALEM, MASS.

I wonder how much Fr. Woods collected at the Immaculate did he do better than we did.

Wishing you all the success
in the world in your good work I am,

Truly Yours,
James S. Bellender.

The Sisters collected $50.00
from the children.

Rev. James S. Kelleher,
St. James Rectory,
Salem, Mass.

Dear Father Kelleher:

Your kind letter of November 13, in which you informed me that you sent in $330.40 to the Propagation of the Faith Office, has not been answered sooner owing to the rush of work in your great archdiocese. Your generous people gave the Indian missions over $47,000. Your total came to $335.01. Immaculate Conception, Salem came to $170.

I am today writing Miss Winifred J. Delany, thanking her for her very generous donations. I am thankful to you for giving me her address.

Will you kindly thank the Sisters of Notre Dame and the children for their generous gifts to the Indian children.

I wish you and Fathers Kerrigan and Toure and the rest of the household, every blessing at Christmas and during the New Year.

Yours fraternally,

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Wm. Hughes,
Director.
