KLAMATH RESERVATION
OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL MISSION
1931

January 6, 1931

Rev. H. J. McCallion,
Chiloquin,
Oregon.

Dear Father McCallion:

I am sending to you today by parcel post a pyx, the gift of Miss
Anna M. Brennan, New Haven, Connecticut.

Upon receipt of the pyx, please send a brief note of thanks through this Bureau for transmittal by me to Miss Brennan.

Yours fraternally,

Rt. Rev. Msgr. William Hughes,
Director.

Rev. Rev. Monsignor,

A letter from you to Fr. W. Callion is as delivered here today. Fr. Geis the founder of this Mission was here, and as Fr. W. Callion has left ~~here~~ we opened the letter. I have succeeded Fr. W. Callion and note that a Bx is to arrive here by Mail, and on its arrival I will with pleasure, as the New Pastor, give a kindly acknowledgment to the donor through your Bureau.

I took up duty here recently and I think after some little time, with God's help and the assistance of the Mission, that the work will be a great success. May I make a suggestion. It's this. There is a Bx here already - I have my own Bx. and the New gift will leave me with three. If you think well of it, I will forward to you my own Bx for the use of some poor Missioner like myself, who may want it badly. I hope you will accept my Bx as it may be a necessity for some other Mission.

May I also make another suggestion and I am sure you will pardon if I err. I find that in order to get the little Indian children to come to Church and Catechism it is necessary to appeal to their childish fancy. I understand

Rev. Hugh J. McCallion
PASTOR
Church of Mount Carmel
CHILOQUIN - - OREGON

that little parties with music - song - candies - & toys appeal very much to little Indian children. If they have not these inducements it is next to impossible to get them come to Catechism or Church.

Unfortunately the few Catholics here cannot supply these things, as they are more than generous already in their help and support of the Mission. My 2nd suggestion then is this. "The best gift that can be sent to this Mission is ready money to buy little toys - candies etc - occasionally - for the children. This, to me, appears the most pressing need in order to attract and keep the little ones."

As I am anxious to make this Mission as successful as possible for the greater glory of God I am sure you will appreciate and receive this letter in the spirit in which it is written.

I remain, dear Monsignor,
Very Sincerely in Christ
Kevin Doyle (Pastor)

Dear Father Doyle:

I have your letter of recent date, for which I thank you. I return copy of your letter herewith, for your files.

I am glad to know that you are now at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Mission, Chiloquin, Oregon.

I note what you say about the pyx which I have sent to you. As you say that when you receive this pyx you will have three, and would like to send your own pyx to another poor missionary, I enclose the address of Rev. Albert C. Riester, S. J., who is working among the Sioux Indians of South Dakota. I am sure that Father Riester will be very grateful for the pyx which you offer.

If it were not too late, I would have published your appeal for toys, candy, etc., in the Winter issue of The Indian Sentinel. However, since this issue is now in the hands of the printers, I will be glad to publish your appeal in the Spring number. In the meantime, I will direct as many shipments of toys, candy and other articles to your mission as possible. When persons write me offering to send such articles to a needy mission, I will be glad to send them your name and address.

Yours fraternally,

Dr. Rev. Marr. William D. McKee

My dear Miss Doyle,

I thank you most sincerely for fine parcel of clothes and candies received for this mission. You may be assured that they will be used to the best advantage.

The little children are naturally fond of candy and we become great friends (on account of candy). They know the drawer in my desk where the good things are and their little shyness has departed to the extent that they look on it as a right to search me even in public. May God bless you. Sure you could not let down a namesake - By the way - I wonder would you by any chance be related or connected with this here missionary? What County in the Old Land claims your loyalty?

With best thanks and prayers,

My dear Sister Editha:

Your very fine parcel received here safely for my little mission. When it was known that a packet had arrived the youngsters mobbed me. What a delight it was to see them wrangling for the beads, the holy pictures and the prayerbooks. Some of them were so proud of their gifts that they paraded the town with the beads around their necks and with the flaring colours--so dear to Indians--that made such a hit with the medals and pictures.

May God bless you dear Sister and all your co-workers.

My personal gratitude will be prayers.

Very sincerely in J. C.

My dear Miss Sherwin:

I thank you from the depths of my existence for the lovely well-filled and well-chosen box of useful gifts to satisfy the hungry. St. Thomas of Aquin was called the Angel of the schools. I think you did well to be called the Angel of the poor missionary and his missions.

If only I had about a half dozen such good friends as you, I think the worries and cares of life would to a great extent, be much relieved.

I will give you, dear Miss Sherwin, a very big remembrance in all my prayers and thank God I have such a good helper in times of stress.

May God bless you.

Very Sincerely in J. C.

My dear Miss Sheehan:

I want to thank you a lot for your big parcel of clothes - pictures - rosaries and prayerbooks. I do not mention the supply of candies, because I barely get one passing glance at same. How that happened was queer. I told the youngsters I was exporting good things in the mail. They got to business and the post office was kept under strict observation when I called there. The big parcel had come and every child in the place came to catechism that Saturday. I put on confessions at same time and all went to the altar next morning. Your candy was the special means for bringing them to the sacraments. They are now as happy as "Spring Chicks". Comprenez-vous?

Rt. Reverend & Dear Monsignor.

Many thanks for accepting my story for the Sentinel.

I was surprised that my last contribution (about little Dazzle) was so well received. I got letters from places as far apart as San-Francisco and New-York----with many promises not to forget Dazzle at Xmas-time.

So pleased was one New-York subscriber that the Sentinel was mailed to far away Africa--to some friends interested in the Missions. Another asked if I wrote for any other magazine, if so, she would become a subscriber**. !!!

A San Francisco priest wrote "THE SENTINEL IS THE BEST THE BRIGHTEST--AND THE MOST WELCOME PUBLICATION I GET".

(Quae, mecum ita sint) I deem it an honor to be associated in any small way with the good work sponsored by you.

I remain Dear Monsignor,

Respectfully & Fraternally,

(KEVIN DOYLE Ind. Missionary.)
