

October 1943

Heroic Nursing and You Will Never Be Sorry

Catholic Physicians' Guild

Follow this and additional works at: <http://epublications.marquette.edu/lnq>

Recommended Citation

Catholic Physicians' Guild (1943) "Heroic Nursing and You Will Never Be Sorry," The Linacre Quarterly: Vol. 11: No. 4, Article 6.
Available at: <http://epublications.marquette.edu/lnq/vol11/iss4/6> and the principles of your Catholic Faith to guide your steps. Save human bodies, alleviate human pain, cheer human hearts, lift up human souls. Keep always before your mind the words of Christ, "As long as you did it to the least of these you did it to me."

Heroic Nursing

In time of war women as well as men are drawn towards the fighting front. You will find them in the Red Cross, and assisting the Armed Forces on land and sea. Wherever the battle rages men are wounded and killed. The noble-minded want to help, to do the heroic thing if necessary, even to the extent of facing death. Those who stay at home pray fervently that their loved ones may come back unharmed, if it is the will of God. Hymns are sung in honor of the Queen of Peace, asking her to pray for us all in time of war. Here are a few lines that were fashioned for the Medical Corps:

"Bless our doctors and our nurses,
As they bind the wounds of war,
Guard them in their work of mercy,
On the sea and distant shore."

You Will Never Be Sorry —

For living a pure life.
For doing your level best.
For being kind to the poor.
For looking before leaping.
For hearing before judging.
For thinking before speaking.
For harboring clean thoughts.
For standing by your principles.
For stopping your ears to gossip.
For being as courteous as a duke.
For being generous to an enemy.
For bridling a slanderous tongue.
For asking pardon when in error.

For being square in business dealings.
For giving an unfortunate fellow a lift.
For promptness in keeping your promise.
For putting the best construction on the acts of others.
For paying your Church dues.
For putting an offering in the collection basket.
For paying your honest debts.

—The Monstrance.