

4-1-2008

Spirit of the Place: A Sampling of Photographs and Art

Follow this and additional works at: <http://epublications.marquette.edu/conversations>

---

Recommended Citation

(2008) "Spirit of the Place: A Sampling of Photographs and Art," Conversations on Jesuit Higher Education: Vol. 33, Article 13.
Available at: <http://epublications.marquette.edu/conversations/vol33/iss1/13>

When Loyola College of Baltimore moved to its present campus, the Tudor style mansion now known as the Francis X. Knott, S.J., Humanities Center was already there. For years it served as the Jesuit community residence. Today it houses the president's office, several academic departments, admissions, alumni and other offices. Its recently renovated terrace has made it a popular gathering place where mind, body, and spirit may blend.

Far left: Fordham University doors from the Administration Building.

Left: A view from St. Joseph's at Santa Clara.

©gregg ross / Xavier University 2007

This photo, taken after an ice storm in early 2007, is of the statue of St. Francis Xavier looking down the steps in front of Hinkle Hall on the Xavier University campus.