February 1993

Award Presented to Mr. Carl Anderson

Catholic Physicians' Guild

Follow this and additional works at: http://epublications.marquette.edu/lnq

Recommended Citation
Catholic Physicians' Guild (1993) "Award Presented to Mr. Carl Anderson," The Linacre Quarterly: Vol. 60: No. 1, Article 3. Available at: http://epublications.marquette.edu/lnq/vol60/iss1/3
The Linacre Quarterly Award for 1992 was presented to Mr. Carl Anderson. The presentation took place at the annual meeting of the National Federation of Catholic Physicians' Guilds in October.

Mr. Anderson is Vice President for Public Policy of the Knights of Columbus, a 1.4 million member, international Catholic fraternal society. Mr. Anderson came to this post in October, 1987, after 11 years of government service. Most recently he has been a special assistant to President Ronald Reagan and acting director of the White House Office of Public Liaison.

While at the White House, Mr. Anderson participated in the development of major pro-family policy initiatives including the Administration's policy for the 1984 International Conference on Population, the White House Report on the American family and presidential executive order on the family, the family oriented provisions of the President's 1986 tax reform legislation, and the President's 1987 prolife legislation.

From 1981 to 1983, Mr. Anderson was a legal advisor in the Office of the Secretary of Health and Human Services, where he participated in the development of the Department's regulations prohibiting discrimination against handicapped newborn infants. In 1980 and 1988, Mr. Anderson served in transition teams for the Office of the President-Elect.

Mr. Anderson holds degrees in philosophy and law and is an attorney admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and before the United States Supreme Court where he participated in the successful defense of the Hyde amendment restriction of government funding of abortion in Harris v. McRae. More recently he has served as counsel in amicus curiae briefs filed before the Supreme Court in Webster v. Reproductive Health Services, Hodgson v. Minnesota, Ohio v. Akron Center for Reproductive Health, and Cruzan v. Director of Missouri Department of Health.

A professor of family law at the Pontifical John Paul II Institute for Studies on Marriage and Family, Mr. Anderson also serves as Dean of the Washington, D.C. campus of the Institute which opened in the Fall of 1988 in Washington, D.C.

In February, 1990, Mr. Anderson was appointed a member of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, an independent, bipartisan agency established by Congress in 1957.

---

Errata:

p. 32, top paragraph, line 6: embodiness should be “embodiedness.”

p. 32, para. 2, line 9: “impart” should be “impair.”

---

NOTICE

The Center for Health Care Ethics at Saint Louis University Medical Center is sponsoring an intensive continuing education program Health Care Ethics in a Pluralistic Society: The Catholic Perspective. This institute will enable the participants to develop a mentality which prompts ethical reflection and action, follow a personalist method of ethical decision making, and understand theories underlying contemporary methods of ethical decision making. 17-22 May 1993

Contact: Donna Troy, Health Care Ethics, 1402 S. Grand Blvd., St. Louis, MO 63104, 314-577-8195.

February, 1993