are undocumented. How do faculty support students who begin to fail? Everyone at Arrupe College has to believe in the students, in the staff, in the future, in the mission. The students too teach the teachers a lot about life in the struggles they face.

All of Jesuit higher education is filled with people who believe, who work hard, who achieve the mission. This is in no way unique to Arrupe College. All the schools built on founders’ hopes and dreams. But at Arrupe the stakes are high and alternatives few for these very fortunate students. Arrupe College has already made a difference and is a worthy addition to higher education in the Jesuit tradition. Father Katsouros and his collaborators in mission have made a magnificent start.

Come to Believe is a powerful testimony to what Jesuit education can achieve.
