Linacre Quarterly* Award

Prof. William E. May, School of Religious Studies, Department of Theology at the Catholic University of America and book review editor for Linacre Quarterly, was presented with the Linacre Quarterly award at the annual meeting of the National Federation of Catholic Physicians' Guilds in Mexico City.

A selection committee chose Professor May's article entitled "Meeting Ethical Dilemmas in Health Care: Some Basic Criteria" as the best contribution to appear in Linacre during 1982. It was published in the August issue.

Professor May received his doctorate in philosophy from Marquette University in 1968. He has written numerous articles for theological, philosophical and professional journals, and several books, among which are Human Existence, Medicine and Ethics and Sex, Marriage and Chastity. He received the Cardinal Wright Award from the Fellowship of Catholic Scholars in 1980.
