Each member is responsible for informing respective organization of the "White Mass" and of mailing invitation which advise of place, time, and (evening) reception that includes members, Catholic and non-Catholic and their families. The notice should be published in all the main bulletin of the groups and announced at meetings. Secure hospital permission to post an invitation on bulletin board.

Publicity Committee
- Secular Press
- Diocesan Press
- Catholic Church Bulletins

Entertainment Committee
- Arrange for refreshments after Mass, served by wives of Guild members.

Ushers Committee
- Guild members should form this committee and direct the seating.

Servers Committee
- If possible, have Guild members serve the "White Mass."

Speaker's Committee
- The Moderator of the Guild should, if possible, offer the Mass.
- The Ordinaries of diocese or some outstanding priests should be begged to give the sermon.

Every effort should be made to make this a united offering of the "White Mass" by all men and women "in white", who serve. If possible, it should be a Dialogue Mass, with the leaflet missal distributed to those attending and following in English, if that is more feasible. An added touch is for all Guild members to wear a white carnation. Assign all Guild members to a committee to give them an active part in the observance of the "White Mass."
