Roll Call: Catholic Physicians' Guilds

Catholic Physicians' Guilds
to foreign lands, supporting them financially. Contact with the Catholic Medical Mission Board with offices in New York City offering to assist in whatever ways possible to help execute that function of the organization to supply personnel to the missions, brings the study up-to-date. The possibilities of aid to a central service bureau could be:

1. Financial support from local Guilds
2. Guilds serving as screening agencies for the Catholic Medical Mission Board
3. Sending personnel

To promote the cause, the president appointed a Ways and Means Committee of the Federation to offer assistance to the Catholic Medical Mission Board. Members are: Drs. R. Locey, chairman; C. Maternowski, J. E. Holoubek, F. Drinan, Wm. Chester, W. Davidson, J. Daniels, J. Malone, and D. A. Mulvihill.

Reverend J. Tong, S.J., Director of the Catholic Hospital Association of India, in the United States at present from New Delhi, described outstanding work done by physicians in the missions. Allied aid in the form of scholarships, sending equipment, text books for student nurses, was also indicated as a worthy cause.

The interest of other faiths in mission work was forcefully described.

Special meetings called by Reverend Anthony LaBau, S.J., director of the Catholic Medical Mission Board, during the N.M.A. convention to discuss mission matters will be productive of a more definite plan to report at the next Board meeting.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Election of officers will be held at the next Federation Board meeting. The president appointed the following to serve on the Nominating Committee: Drs. William J. Egner, Boston; Melvin P. Yeip, Cleveland; Wm. P. Cheek, Detroit; D. A. Mulvihill, New York, and James T. Nix, New Orleans. A slate of officers will be presented to the Board at the Winter meeting in Denver.

NEW BUSINESS

Motion was passed to incorporate the National Federation and Monsignor McGowan was asked to have N.C.W.C. proceed in the matter.

It was voted to investigate the possibilities of an Educational Fund for the Federation to develop projects along this line.

A request from the Baton Rouge Guild to have the Federation prepare a Pre-Cana film for physicians to use in their Conference work, was referred back to the group for contact with the Family Life Conference of N.C.W.C.

Meeting adjourned at 4:00 p.m.
