Monsignor Bordelon

MODERATOR OF THE NATIONAL FEDERATION

The Most Reverend Thomas J. McDonough, D.D., Bishop of Savannah and Episcopal Advisor of the National Federation of Catholic Physician's Guilds has appointed the Very Reverend Monsignor Marvin Bordelon of Shreveport, Louisiana as Moderator of the organization. He serves as chaplain of the Shreveport-Bossier Catholic Physicians' Guild and had assisted with the organization of the Guild in Alexandria. Monsignor is Pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Shreveport. A busy schedule has found him at one time the Diocesan Family Life Director and Diocesan Censor of Books. He has served as Vice-Chancellor of the Diocese of Alexandria and at present he is Director of The Collegium. The National Moderator is President of the St. Joseph's Seminary Alumni Association. He was invested as Papal Chamberlain in 1962.

MSGR. BORDELON

Monsignor Bordelon has become a personal and warm friend of past and present officers of the Federation by his attendance at each National Executive Meeting with the delegates from Louisiana Guilds. The officers and staff congratulate him on his appointment, thank him for his acceptance and welcome him as Spiritual Director of their efforts in Catholic Action.
