INTRODUCTION

The 2008 release of Foundations in Wisconsin marks the 27th edition of the print directory and the 8th year of the online version (www.wifoundations.org). The directory is designed as a research tool for grantseekers interested in locating information on private, corporate, and community foundations registered in Wisconsin. Each entry in this new edition has been updated or reviewed to provide the most current information available. Most of the data was drawn from IRS 990-PF tax returns filed by the foundations. However, additional information was obtained from surveys, foundation Web sites, annual reports, and newsletters.

Wisconsin foundations have shown continued growth in key areas. The number of active grantmaking foundations has risen to an all-time high of 1,275, with 70 new foundations identified since last year’s publication. While the total grants remained stable at $475 million, the total assets increased by 16.5% to $7.2 billion. The following table illustrates the 10-year financial pattern as documented in Foundations in Wisconsin.

The 50 largest granting foundations in the state (4% of the total number of foundations) account for $302,005,625 in total giving or 64% of the total grants reported in this edition. For the list of the top 50, please see page vi.

Foundations in Wisconsin is produced by the staff of the Funding Information Center, located in Marquette University’s John P. Raynor, S.J., Library. The Center’s mission is to serve the research needs of grantseekers from around the state. We welcomed over 470 visitors and responded to over 550 telephone and e-mail inquiries. Among other resources, the Center’s collection includes both the print and online versions of this directory for public use. For more information about the Center or to plan a visit, please turn to page vii or see our Web site at www.marquette.edu/library/fic.

This directory could not have been produced without the considerable efforts of editorial assistants Melanie Baier, Jeremy Blackwood, Joseph Flipper, Sarah Martin, and Katie Morrison who all worked diligently to locate, compile, enter, and proofread the 990-PF tax data. Special thanks go to Linda Fry of the Wisconsin Department of Justice for providing access to new tax information. We are also grateful to the many foundation managers who responded to our surveys. I am also indebted to former assistant Vance Thomas and the staff of the Raynor Library Information Technology Department for their help with needed software upgrades and system maintenance. Finally, I would like to thank my colleagues in Research and Instructional Services for their constant encouragement throughout the year.

Copies of the Common Application Form (a service of the Donors Forum of Wisconsin) are also available in both print and electronic formats (3.5 floppy disk, CD, or flash drive required). Photocopiers and printers are available for a fee. All other services are available free-of-charge.

FOUNDATION CENTER COOPERATING COLLECTIONS

The Foundation Center is an independent national service organization established by foundations to provide an authoritative source of information on private philanthropic giving. Reference collections operated by the Foundation Center in New York, Washington D.C., Cleveland, San Francisco and Atlanta offer a wide variety of services and comprehensive collections of information on foundations and grants. The Foundation Center also supports over 300 Cooperating Collections located throughout the country. Cooperating Collections are libraries, community foundations and other nonprofit agencies that provide a core collection of Foundation Center publications and a variety of supplementary materials and services in areas useful to grantseekers. The core collection consists of:

- Foundation Directory Online
- Foundation Directory, parts 1, 2 and 3
- Foundation 1000
- Foundation Fundamentals
- Foundation Grants to Individuals
- Foundations Today Series

Many of the network members have sets of private foundation tax returns (IRS 990-PF) for their state or region which are available for public use. A complete set of U.S. foundation returns can be found at the New York and Washington offices of the Foundation Center. Because the collections vary in their hours, resources and services, it is recommended that visitors call each library in advance. For information on additional locations, call the Foundation Center at (800) 424-9836 or visit the Foundation Center’s Web site at: http://foundationcenter.org.

The foundation currently concentrates on grantmaking in six primary areas: Alzheimer's Disease and Aging, Economic Development, Children and Youth in Israel, Jewish Life and Learning, and Sankofa-Youth Development. The foundation prefers funding programs that demonstrate results, are coordinated with other community programs, and can be easily replicated. Alzheimer's and Dementia grants are given both locally and nationally. Israel focuses within the country of Israel.
Limitations: The foundation does not provide direct support to individuals, including individual scholarships. Grants are given only to US organizations which are tax exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or to government entities. NEW FOUNDATIONS

The following list is a reprint of the names of 70 foundations that are being listed in Foundations in Wisconsin for the first time, either because they are newly formed, moved to Wisconsin, or had a change in tax status. As with all foundations in this book, the established date, if we were able to confirm it, is the fiscal year that the first IRS 990-PF tax return was filed. The 23 active foundations that have profiles in the main section of the book are designated with an “A.” The rest are from the unprofiled section.

Areas of Interest Categories

The following categories are used to designate foundation interests, that is, the types of programs supported by a particular foundation during the year for which information is included in this directory. The numbers which correspond to these categories are listed under the term “Interests” in each foundation profile in the main section of this directory. The names of the foundations which have supported these interests are listed on the pages which follow. A foundation must have made grants of $1,000 or more to be included in an interest category.

No attempt is made to show which interest is preferred by a foundation. To determine this preference, view the foundation’s complete grants list found on the IRS 990 tax forms available at Marquette University Raynor Library or via web sources such as GuideStar (www.guidestar.org).
