Members of the National Seminar on Jesuit Higher Education and A Note to Contributors

Editorial Board

Follow this and additional works at: http://epublications.marquette.edu/conversations

Recommended Citation
Available at: http://epublications.marquette.edu/conversations/vol33/iss1/26
COMING UP
The next issue will deal with an issue we have confronted several times in different ways over recent years, but which remains a live problem: mission. There seems general agreement that our colleges and universities must maintain a clear Jesuit identity, but it is not clear exactly how to do that. Each school perhaps addresses the issue in its own way, but which efforts have been more successful than others? Articles will examine hiring for mission from several points of view, teaching for mission, particularly in pre-professional programs, research guided by mission, and a survey of how various schools project the Jesuit mission in their self-presentation and the usual feature of four student essays on the topic.

HOW TO WRITE FOR US
Please keep the article to fewer than 3000 words. Do NOT include footnotes. Incorporate any references into the text. Please, DON'T capitalize: chairman of the biology department, names of committees, or administrative titles, unless the title precedes the name, as in President Woodrow Wilson. We welcome photographs, fully captioned, preferably action rather than posed shots. Preferable format: a CD containing digital images scanned at not less than 300 dpi. Or a traditional print.
Read the article both as a MicrosoftWORD mac attachment to raymond@hsu.edu and in hard copy to the editor at Saint Peter's College.

Permission is granted to reprint articles from Conversations for any educational purpose, provided credit is given to the original source.