COMING UP

The Status of Philosophy and Theology. At one time they were considered at the heart of Jesuit identity in higher education. What has changed? Where are we headed?

Topics under discussion.

"Physicality" — the education of the whole person. Can we integrate mind, spirit, and body in the same curriculum?

HOW TO WRITE FOR US

Please keep the article to fewer than 3000 words. Do NOT include footnotes. Incorporate any references into the text. Please, DON'T capitalize: chairman of the biology department, names of committees, or administrative titles, unless the title preceding the name, as in President Woodrow Wilson. We welcome photographs, full-color captioned, preferably action rather than posed doors. Preferable format: a CD containing digital images scanned at not less than 300 dpi or a traditional print.

Send the article both as a Microsoft WORD file attachment to raymond.chroba@marquette.edu and in hard copy to the editor at Saint Peter's College.

Permission is granted to reprint articles from Conversations for any educational purpose, provided credit is given to the original source.

A Note to Contributors

HOW THE SEMINAR WORKS & HOW TO WRITE FOR US

The Seminar plans each of the two annual issues during its three annual meetings, each at a different Jesuit college or university. For the most part, an issue focuses on one theme; but, at the same time, through the various departments — letters, Talking Back, occasional forums, other articles, and book reviews — there are opportunities to keep the conversation going on a variety of concerns.

Our ten Seminar members come from across the spectrum of our colleges and universities, representing varied academic disciplines and a broad range of experience with the Jesuit educational tradition. The themes we choose to explore come out of our common reflection on that experience and from the discussions we hold with faculty, administrators, staff, and students as we rotate among our schools.

So, although most of the major articles are commissioned by the Session, we welcome unsolicited articles from the readers. Ideally, they should be written to explore an idea which will generate discussion rather than describe a noteworthy project at one's institution. Please understand that, since the Seminar meets only three times a year, it may take several months for each issue to take shape.
