Table of Contents, Contact Information and A Word from the Chairman of the Seminar

Editorial Board

Follow this and additional works at: http://epublications.marquette.edu/conversations

Recommended Citation
Available at: http://epublications.marquette.edu/conversations/vol25/iss1/1
FEATURES

Developing the Brand Equity of Jesuit Higher Education, Gene R. Laczniak
Branding is the Problem, Not the Solution, John Hollwitz
Marketing for Mission: Can Jesuit Education Be “Branded”? Pat Bourgeois
Branding and Jesuit Higher Education, James M. Purcell
Education for Justice and the Common Good, Robert N. Bellah

TALKING BACK

Father Fulco’s Baptism of Fire, William Fulco and Ed Siebert
Doing Wrong to Discover What’s Right, David Baugnon
The Morality of Self Preservation, Henry Griffin

STUDENT PROFILES

Dawa Dorjee, University of San Francisco, Gary McDonald
Kristi Vaughn, Spring Hill College, Greg Walker
Elle Hogan, Saint Louis University, Billy Brennan
Jeff Howard, Saint Joseph’s University, Joseph Cairns

Letters to the Editor

To The Jesuits: Don’t Forget You’re Catholic, Peter Steinfeld

Book Review

A Word from the Chairman of the Seminar

This issue is the first one brought to our readers by the new editor of Conversations, Fr. Raymond A. Schroth, S.J. He brings to the Seminar years of experience in university teaching and administration at a number of Jesuit schools. He is also a prolific writer: he has published seven books, and innumerable articles, and readers of the National Catholic Reporter will recognize him as the current author of a prize-winning column on the media. We’re fortunate to have Ray serving in this editorial capacity for the Seminar.

While we welcome the new editor, I want to say a word of grateful recognition to the man whose place he is taking: Dr. Edwin F. Block, Jr., professor of English at Marquette University. In the last issue, Ed took leave of his readership with typical modesty, speaking of his three-year stint as editor as one of his “most invigorating and challenging endeavors” and thanking everyone “for having had the opportunity to serve in this capacity.” Serve he did, indeed, winning the admiration and affection of Seminar members and bringing readers some of our more solid and stimulating issues.

In the name of all those whose minds and hearts are touched by Conversations and the conversations it gives rise to, thanks to Ed and Ray for editorial service experienced and anticipated. Our very best wishes to you both!

John J. O’Callaghan, S.J., Chairman
National Seminar on Jesuit Higher Education