The 1965 Thomas Linacre Award was presented to Eugene G. Hamilton of St. Louis, Missouri. His article, “Preparation of Marriage,” published in the November, 1965 issue of the LINACRE QUARTERLY was judged by a special Editorial Committee of the Federation to constitute the most significant contribution by a physician to last year’s issues of the journal.

Dr. Hamilton is a member of the Catholic Physicians’ Guild of St. Louis and is engaged in the private practice of obstetrics and gynecology. He is a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons and a Diplomate of the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology and since 1953 has served as Assistant Professor in this field at St. Louis University School of Medicine. In his work Dr. Hamilton is associated with St. Louis City Hospital, the Missouri State Mental Hospital, St. Mary’s Hospital, and St. John’s Mercy Hospital.

The Linacre Award was presented by Dr. William J. Egan, editor of the LINACRE QUARTERLY, to Dr. Hamilton at the breakfast meeting of the National Federation held at the Conrad Hilton Hotel on Wednesday, June 29.
